
Contents

Foreword	x
Acknowledgments	xii
About the Author	xv
Introduction	1
 Section One: The Will	 11
1. The Blind Spot of Bullying Prevention	12
Public Perception and Reaction	13
The Missing Piece	13
The Blind Spot Described	14
The Consequences of the Blind Spot	15
The Under/Over Barrier	15
School Leaders' Role	16
Summary	17
Activities to Address the Blind Spot Problem With Staff or Other Members of the School Community	17
2. The Moral Purpose and Obligation of Bullying Prevention	22
Reasons for Staff Reluctance and Strategies to Address Them	23
Priming: Preparing the School Community to Commit to Bullying Prevention	26
Summary	29
Activities to Strengthen Moral Commitment and Purpose	29
3. How We See It Is How We Solve It	34
Choice Gives Us a Better Chance	35
Bullying: Technical or Adaptive problem?	36
Default Mode of Most Schools	38
Bullying Is an Adaptive Problem	39
The Technical Solution That's Not Complete	40

Summary: What School Leaders Need to Know and Do	40
Activities on Perspective and Problems	41
4. Changing Your Mind(set)	48
No Way Out	48
Mindset: Definition and Example	49
The Default (Criminal Justice) Mindset on Bullying	50
Educational Mindset on Bullying	51
Educational Mindset in Action	54
Summary	56
Activities for “Changing Your Mind(set)”	56
Section Two: The Skill	63
5. You Can’t Bully Your Way to Bullying Prevention	64
The Fear of the Principal	64
The Principal as Enforcer	65
Leadership Style and Bullying Prevention	66
The Best (Only) Place to Start	67
Five-Point Leadership Inspection	67
The Power of Baby Steps	70
Summary	70
Activities to Reflect on the Use of Power	71
6. Leadership for Bullying Prevention: What Not to Do and Not to Think	76
Common Misdirections in Bullying Prevention	77
Summary	86
Activities to Address the Misdirections and Misconceptions in Bullying Prevention	87
7. Leading Groups to Lead	90
Lessons Learned	91
Creating the Conditions	92
Establishing a Structure for Deliberation and Decision Making	94
Navigating Through the Complex Problem of Bullying	95
Linking the Team to the Larger Group and School Community	98
Summary	101
Activities to “Lead Groups to Lead”	102
8. The Human Face of Data	105
Assessing the Problem of Bullying	106
Using Multiple Sources of Data	108
Using Focus Groups to Add the Human Face to Data	110

Conducting Focus Groups	111
Analyzing the Data From Assessment Instruments	115
Analyzing the Data From Focus Groups	116
Working With Bullying Prevention Team to Interpret the Data	117
Sharing the Assessment Findings	119
Summary	121
Activity for “The Human Face of Data”: Two Sides of the Story	121
9. “Of the Students, by the Students, for the Students”:
What School Leaders Need to Know	123
A Rare Glimpse	123
The Necessary Shifts	124
The Social Nature of Bullying	126
The Real Challenge for School Leaders	129
Begin With the End in Mind	130
Leadership and Responsibility	130
Summary	132
Activities for “Of the Students, by the Students, for the Students”	133
10. “Of the Students, by the Students, for the Students”:
What School Leaders Need to Do	137
Implications for Practice: ABC	138
Autonomy Practices	138
Belonging Practices	141
Competency Practices	145
Coaching in the Social World of Bullying	148
High Leverage (ABC) Practices Not Specifically Designed for Bullying Prevention (but Worth the Investment)	152
Summary	153
Activities to Support Students’ Response to Bullying	154
Section Three: The Follow Through (Infrastructure)	157
11. Leadership for a Change	158
Getting Started	158
Stumbling and Struggling: The Rule, Not the Exception	159
Guiding Principles	159
The Balancing Act of Leadership: How to Respond to Teacher Bullying	162
Leadership Practices That Promote Leadership and Learning (and Prevent and Reduce Bullying)	166

Summary	173
Activities for “Leadership for a Change”	173
12. Policies, Programs, and Practices	178
What’s the Policy?	178
A Review by the U.S. Department of Education/Center for Safe and Supportive Schools of Provisions in State Laws	180
Memo to the Field: Issues of Civil Rights Violation	181
Caution: Words Matter	183
Bullying Prevention Practices and Programs	183
What Research Says About Best Practice	183
The Top Ten Practices: A Reliable Source	184
Best Practice for Best Practice	185
Practical Wisdom: Making Policies, Programs, and Practices Work	187
Practical Wisdom for Using Programs and Practices	188
Finding Effective Programs/Practices	188
Summary	189
Activity for “Policies, Programs, and Practices”: Practical Wisdom	190
13. Discipline in the Right Climate: Rules, Consequences, Supervision, and Intervention	192
The Best of Both Worlds	192
Applying the Three-Tier Intervention Model to Bullying Prevention	193
Rules: Look Closely	194
Supervision of Students	195
Consequences: Caveats	200
Guidelines for Meeting With Students Involved With Bullying	203
Bullying: Blending In or Standing Out?	206
Summary	207
Activities for “Discipline in the Right Climate”	208
14. Beyond the School Building: Parents, the School Bus, and the Digital World	211
Who’s to Blame?	211
Leading From Between a Rock and a Hard Place	212
No One Is to Blame, but We All Are Responsible	212
School Leaders’ Main Task: From Finger-Pointing to Working Together	212
A Parallel Case	214
Implications for School Leaders	214

Guidelines for Receiving Complaints	215
Guidelines for Responding to the Complaint	216
Guidelines for Communicating With the Parent of a Student Who Bullied	217
Communicating With Parents of Bystanders	219
The School Bus	220
Challenges With the Digital World	223
Cyberbullying: The School's Responsibility and Authority	224
Summary	227
Activities to Support Concepts in "Beyond the School Building"	228
15. Beyond Bullying Prevention: Climate Change for the Better	231
It Takes Generations	231
The Missing Key Ingredient	232
The Flywheel of Bullying Prevention	232
The Right Habits for Success	233
Services	234
Ongoing Evaluation of Bullying Prevention	234
Integrating Bullying Prevention With the Curriculum, Customs, and Traditions of the School	237
Curriculum	238
Customs and Traditions: Classroom and School	239
Planning for Substitute Teachers	241
Rituals for Comings and Goings	241
Schoolwide Customs and Traditions	241
Summary	244
Final Thoughts	245
Appendix: Bullying Prevention Resources	247
References	251
Index	257